

Recent publications and presentations

Martin-Beltrán, M. (forthcoming). The Two-Way Language Bridge: Co-constructing Bilingual Language Learning Opportunities. The Modern Language Journal.

Martin-Beltrán, M. (2009). Cultivating space for the language boomerang: The interplay of two languages as academic resources. English Teaching: Practice and Critique September. 8(2), 25-53

Martin-Beltrán, M. (forthcoming) Developing cross-cultural competence through observation and dialogic teacher inquiry. In (Eds) Park, G, Widodo, H, & Cirocki, A. Observation of Teaching: Bridging Theory and Practice through Research on Teaching. Munich: Lincom Europa.

Peercy, M. & Martin-Beltrán, M (2009) Challenges and opportunities for collaborations that benefit English language learners. Paper prepared for the Language Teacher Education Conference. Washington, DC.

Martin-Beltrán, M. & Peercy, M. (2009) Networks of Co-constructive Collaboration to Teach Elementary ELLs. Paper prepared for the American Educational Research Association Conference. San Diego, CA.

Martin-Beltrán, M. (2009) Inviting each other: culturally and linguistically diverse teachers engage in dialogic narrative Presentation prepared for the Colloquium: Finding New Stories in TESOL Teacher Education for the TESOL 2009 convention. Denver, Colorado.

Martin-Beltrán, M. (2008) The Language Boomerang and the Two-Way Language Bridge: Sociocultural Tools Students Use to Co-construct Language Expertise. Paper prepared for the American Educational Research Association Conference. New York, NY.

Martin-Beltrán, M. (2008) Transformative Co-construction of Language Expertise in a Dual Immersion Bilingual Program. Paper prepared for American Association of Applied Linguistics Annual Conference. Washington, D.C.

Martin-Beltrán, M. (2007) Co-constructing Competence and Conditions for Language Exchange among Language-minority and Language-majority Students. Paper prepared for the American Educational Research Association Conference. Chicago, IL.

Martin-Beltrán, M. (2007) Engaging ethnolinguistic differences in schools through language exchange. Presentation prepared for the Comparative International Education Society Annual Meeting. Baltimore, MD.

Martin-Beltrán, M. (2006) What do we have to say to each other? Opportunities for language exchange between Language Minority and Language Majority Students. Paper prepared for the American Educational Research Association Conference. San Francisco, CA.