

WATESOL NNEST CAUCUS WORKSHOP

at the
AUTESOL/WATESOL Spring Conference 2009
American University, Washington, DC
Saturday April 18

Teaching, Researching, and Advocating as Non-Native English Speakers: Finding New Pathways for Professional Success 9:30am to 12:00pm

This practical, hands-on workshop is aimed at TESOLers of all linguistic identities with an interest in Non-Native English-speaking Teachers (NNESTs) advocacy, and draws upon the experiences of TESOLers seeking to engage in teaching strategically and reflectively, and advocating for professional equity through research and action as NNESTs.

In two separate segments, the presenters will reflect upon their teaching and research, and at the end of each segment engage the audience in conversations around strategy-building, reflective thinking, and active advocacy.

Presenters:
Han Suk Suh
Joie Austria
Rashi Jain
