

PROMISE FAMILY SUPPORT GROUP

THE PROGRAM FOR MEANINGFUL INTERACTION AND SOCIAL ENGAGEMENT FOR YOUNG CHILDREN AND YOUTH (PROMISE) IS A COMMUNITY OF ASIAN AMERICAN CAREGIVERS OF CHILDREN AND YOUTH WITH SPECIAL NEEDS IN THE DC, MARYLAND, AND VIRGINIA (DMV) AREA. WE CONNECT FAMILIES AND PROFESSIONALS TO EXCHANGE RESOURCES AND STORIES.

FEBRUARY 13, 2024 TUESDAY 7:30-8:30 PM EST

Supporting Language Development for Children Who Use Scripting and Echolalia

Many children communicate with echolalia or scripting. This means they are gestalt language learners rather than analytic language learners. This presentation will describe language acquisition for gestalt language learners, and provide strategies to support their language development. Presented by Denise Bryant, M.A., CCC-SLP and Ariel La, M.S., CCC-SLP

MARCH 5, 2024 TUESDAY 7:30-8:30PM EST

How to Recognize and De- Escalate an Overstimulated Child

Caregivers will understand what dysregulation and overstimulation look like in a child and how to help de-escalate a child to avoid a sensory meltdown. Presented by Catherine Galvin MS, OTR/L, BCP

APRIL 9, 2024 TUESDAY 7:30-8:30PM EST

Maryland Partnership for Affordable Housing (MPAH)

Presented by The Maryland Partnership for Affordable Housing

QR CODE FOR ZOOM LINK

Join Zoom Meeting:
<https://umd.zoom.us/j/7951198336pwd=RTlwcVhBNHVGDkVhMFhmQ2FHcXF6dz09>

