

University of Maryland
School Psychology Program
Supplemental Application Questions

Please respond to the questions below in no more than 2 to 3 paragraphs per question. After you have completed your responses to these questions, upload your document.

Applicant's Name:

(as entered in the University of Maryland online application)

Supplemental Questions:

1. Tell us about your research questions and your interests.¹
How do your interests match up with program faculty research interests?
2. If you completed either an undergraduate honors thesis or master's thesis, please describe the nature of the research.
3. If you have had other research experiences, please describe the nature of the project and of your role in it.
4. Tell us about your applied experiences and how these experiences relate to the field of School Psychology.¹
5. Describe your experiences in working with individuals and/ or groups from diverse backgrounds.¹

¹ This question used courtesy of Lehigh University School Psychology Program