Dr. Tess Shier Barker has finished her joint JD/PhD program in July. She successfully defended her dissertation in May: "Patent Litigation Involving Colleges and Universities: An Analysis of Cases from 1980 - 2009." It was nominated both for the ASHE Dissertation of the Year award and the Educational Law Association Dissertation of the Year award.

Miriam Langa Carter has left Montgomery College to be the General Manager/Director of the OP Jindal Community Colleges in India. Congrats, Miriam. <http://insidemc.montgomerycollege.edu/showStory.php?id=28519>

Dr. Thomas J. Hippchen send greetings to CSP friends- He obtained his PhD from Boston College (where he was the Assistant Director for the Presidential Scholars Program), then was in Counsel's Office at SUNY System Administration (Albany) serving as the point person for University-wide policies and procedures. In 2007 he was asked to become the Director of University-wide Procurement. He serves as a resource (mainly regarding legal and procedural guidance) for with the 30 State-operated campuses and statutory colleges (Cornell & Alfred U.) and a liaison between SUNY and the NY State government entities (of which there are many) that oversee procurement. Congrats Tom, good to hear from you!

President Neil Kerwin announced that Dr. Terry Flannery is now the Vice President for Communications at American University. Congrats, Terry.

Laura Barrantes is now Executive Assistant to the President at National Labor College in Silver Spring.

Kelsey South is starting the PhD program in Counseling Psychology at the University of Oregon in Eugene.

Check out Dr. Cara D. Appel-Silbaugh's review of Girl in Transition in the Summer 2011 issue of NODA's Journal of College Orientation and Transition.

Peter Magolda and Marcia Baxter Magolda's latest book Contested Issues in Student Affairs: Diverse Perspectives and Respectful Dialogue (Stylus, 2011) has just been released including chapters by CSP authors:

We love gatherings of CSP friends! Send in those photos.

Doctoral student Julie Choe Kim just shared this great resource “APA 6th requires DOIs in the reference list for journal articles, but in many cases (especially with older articles) that information isn’t provided. I recently came across a very nifty little site that will look up the DOI for any reference you have: <http://www.crossref.org/guestquery/> “ Thanks, Julie!

College Park is off to an interesting start of the semester: an earthquake, followed shortly by a hurricane! Ana Maia and Josh Hiscock posed with Testudo after the departure of Hurricane Irene. Best wishes to everyone this semester!
