PROGRAM COURSES

- Foundations of Reading and Literacy for Equity
- Critical Literacies, Digital Technology & Instruction for Diverse Classrooms
- Teaching Multilingual Learners: Culturally Sustaining and Translanguaging Practices in Literacy Classrooms
- Clinical Assessment in Reading and Literacy in Diverse Settings
- Clinical Instruction in Reading and Literacy in Diverse Settings
- Literacy Leadership for Equity in Diverse Schools
- Multicultural Materials and Instruction for P-12 Readers
- Advanced Clinical Practices in Reading & Literacy Assessment in Diverse Settings
- Research Methods

QUICK FACTS

- 30-credit program- Combination of online & in-person classes
- Focus on equity & culturally and linguistically diverse literacy learners
- Research & evidence-based best practices, including the Science of Reading
- Experience working in Reading Clinic- Creating a strong connection between coursework & practice

Program Faculty & Research Interests

Ayanna Baccus, Ph.D: Reading interventions, & teacher education

Shannon Kane, Ed.D: Critical literacy & student discourse

Olivia Saracho, Ph.D: Emergent literacy & family literacy

Jennifer Turner, Ph.D: culturally responsive teaching & arts-based research with youth

Want more info? Interested in applying?
Contact: Dr. Baccus
baccusa@umd.edu