

INTERNATIONAL APPROACHES TO DRAMA IN EDUCATION

Looking for a dynamic, culturally responsive and meaningful way to engage your students? Are you seeking best practices to maximize implementation of the Common Core?

TLPL 688L International Approaches to Drama in Education

The Masters of Education (M.Ed.) in Teacher Leadership with a focus in Arts Integration program is designed for students who are already certified teachers and are seeking a Master's degree. Through coursework, students will enhance their scholarly, creative and leadership capabilities by exploring new and innovative approaches to researching, designing, teaching and assessing arts integration content and processes within and across disciplines.

Meeting Days and Time

ONLINE: Wednesdays, 5:00-8:00 p.m.
(May 29, June 19, August 7 and 14)

IN IRELAND M-F, 9:30 AM – 5:00 PM (July 15-29)

Application Deadline
March 1, 2013

For more information please visit <http://ter.ps/suidramaedu>

The Ireland trip includes two weeks of workshops, theatre, and cultural exchanges with drama in education teachers from around the world!

Teaching & Learning, Policy & Leadership
2311 Benjamin Building
College Park, MD 20742-1175
301.314.9055 (Fax)

Arts Integration Program Contact
Dr. Margaret A. Walker
Coordinator, Arts Integration Program
Email: mwalker8@umd.edu