

EDUCATION IN CONFLICT AND EMERGENCIES
STUDENT ORGANIZATION PRESENTS:

Teachers in Disaster and Conflict Contexts: From the Global to the Local

In recognition of UNESCO's
World Teachers' Day

OCTOBER 3, 2019

1 - 3 PM

GLOBAL CROSSROADS

H.J. PATTERSON HALL

From the global to the local, come explore the frustrations, heartbreaks, opportunities and strengths of teachers providing education during natural disasters, conflicts, epidemics, and crises with three guest speakers.

Sponsored by the Harold R. W. Benjamin Professorship of International Education

SPEAKERS

The Importance of Trauma Sensitive Pedagogy in the Context of Adversity

Dr. Christy Tirrell-Corbin
University of Maryland, College Park

Working with Teachers in Disaster-Affected Pakistan & Indonesia and Conflict-Affected Jordan & Lebanon

Jisun Jeong
The George Washington University

Engaging Refugee Youth in Maryland Public Schools: Tapping into Students' Strengths

Lindsay Dusard
International Rescue Committee

REFRESHMENTS PROVIDED!