Director of Operations

Center for Early Childhood Education and Intervention (CECEI)
University of Maryland, College Park

Background on the Center for Early Childhood Education and Intervention:
The Center for Early Childhood Education and Intervention (CECEI), in the College of Education at the University of Maryland, is a joint initiative between the Department of Counseling, Higher Education and Special Education and the Department of Human Development and Quantitative Methodology. The mission of the CECEI is to conduct high quality research on early childhood education and early intervention programs in order to inform State and Federal policy, to translate research into scalable education programs and best practices, to build capacity in schools and communities, and to promote family engagement in their children’s education.

Background on Maryland Early EdCorp:
The Center for Early Childhood Education and Intervention (CECEI) at the University of Maryland has developed the Maryland Early EdCorp CDA Apprenticeship program to recruit and prepare 125 individuals new to the child care field. Participants will receive 160 hours of professional development in both pre-service and weekly sessions. They also receive onsite mentor coaching while placed in a high quality child care setting serving children and families with complex access issues (children with disabilities, experiencing homelessness, engaged in the child welfare system, who are dual language learners, and/or live in poverty).
