Spring 2022 Research Assistant

Center for Early Childhood Education and Intervention (CECEI)
University of Maryland, College Park

Background on the Center for Early Childhood Education and Intervention

The Center for Early Childhood Education and Intervention (CECEI), in the College of Education at the University of Maryland, is a joint initiative between the Department of Counseling, Higher Education and Special Education and the Department of Human Development and Quantitative Methodology. The mission of the CECEI is to conduct high quality research on early childhood education and early intervention programs in order to inform State and Federal policy, to translate research into scalable education programs and best practices, to build capacity in schools and communities, and to promote family engagement in their children’s education.

Position Description

CECEI is seeking a master’s or doctoral student for the spring 2022 semester to engage in and support research in CECEI, under the direction of Dr. Christy Tirrell-Corbin, Executive Director.
